NC State University and NC A&T State University commit themselves to positive action to secure equal opportunity regardless of race, color, creed, national origin, religion, sex, age or disability. In addition, both Universities welcome all persons without regard to sexual orientation.
The North Carolina Federation of Cooperative Extension Associations unifies North Carolina Cooperative Extension and promotes professional development and communicates concerns and needs of its members.

The Federation is committed to and supports the mission of North Carolina Cooperative Extension.

The Federation is the premier organization representing the professional needs of Extension workers to Extension Administrative Council, the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, the Land Grant University System, the University of North Carolina System and state and county governments.

We are committed to and provide a mechanism for dialogue and communication for the Extension organization.

We encourage and support cooperation and communication between Extension associations promoting mutual respect and an appreciation for the diversity of Extension professionals.

The Federation is committed to and supportive of professional development for all Extension workers.

We are a full partner promoting the North Carolina Cooperative Extension System among the people of North Carolina.

Purpose:
Annual meeting of the members.

Date:
Traditionally held the 2nd Friday in December.

Location:
Site selected by the Board of Directors.

Who should attend:
Each member of the Federation Board of Directors, President and Vice President (or President-Elect) of member Associations and 10 additional members from each Association.

Registration Fee:
Annual endowment from NC Soybean Association makes it possible to attend the Forum without requiring a registration fee.

Issues and Concerns:
To be solicited from Association members by the Association Presidents, submitted to the Federation President and then sent on to Administration to review and compile their responses prior to the Forum. Issues and concerns may also be voiced from the floor.
